

Accessing FamilySearch Digital Images

FamilySearch “How to” Guide, Beginner Level: Activity

July 2016

1. Use the FamilySearch Catalog to answer the following questions regarding records for Mortera, Santander, Spain:

Are there any digital church records available for this locality?
Are there any microfilms with some or all of the records indexed?
Are there any microfilms not available online?
What records are available to view online?
What is the film number of records available digitally?
What item number would I look for to begin searching Bautismos beginning in 1693?
Which image number shows the beginning of Item 5?
How many images are available for this microfilm?

2. Using the map on the FamilySearch Search page, locate Evangelical Church birth records for the year 1878 in Breslau-St. Barbara, Wrocław, Poland and answer the following questions.

What is the name of the collection where these records can be found?
What is the name of the collection that contains births for the year 1878?
Are the records indexed?
How many images are available for this collection?

3. Just for fun, choose a locality where your ancestors lived and using either the catalog or the map, check to see if there are any records available online.
